

The Lollipop Lady

by David Billings, Rob Fairbairn, Mark Leehy, Kevin O'Mara

- 1 You know the lollipop lady?
We like to see her, we see her every day
Me and my brother, we know the lollipop lady
She push the button, then we go on our way

Chorus

Walking down the street
People that you meet
Are people who will greet you Every day and they say "Hey!"

- 2 Pete the postie, he knows the lollipop lady
He brings her letters, he drops them in every day
Perhaps a postcard, maybe news of a baby
He gives a whistle, then he pedals away

Whistled chorus

- 3 "G'day Maria", says the lollipop lady
She buys zucchinis, a bag of bro-o-coli Joe the butcher, he sees the Lollipop Lady
"I've got a special", she takes it home for her tea

Chorus

- 4 Every morning, we see the lollipop lady Joe and Maria, they take the children to school
And Pete the Postie, see him walking his baby
He knows the lady, he knows the lady is cool

Chorus

I know the lollipop lady (Lollipop, Lollipop, Oh Lolli – Lollipop)
You know the lollipop lady (Lollipop, Lollipop, Oh Lolli – Lollipop)
We know the lollipop lady (Lollipop, Lollipop, Oh Lolli – Lollipop) Lollipop Lady – maybe you know her too

Joseph O'Mara Grade 2

The Lollipop Lady

Score

Use body sounds and instruments for the verse body sounds

verse 1	knee pats
verse 2	rub hands
verse 3	finger snaps and tongue clucks
verse 4	foot stamps

instruments
shakers
guiros and cabassas triangles drums

Play these notes on the chorus

Walking down the street, people that you meet

Are people who will greet you every day – and you'll say "Hey!"

Street cries

In olden days the streets were filled with the cries of street sellers

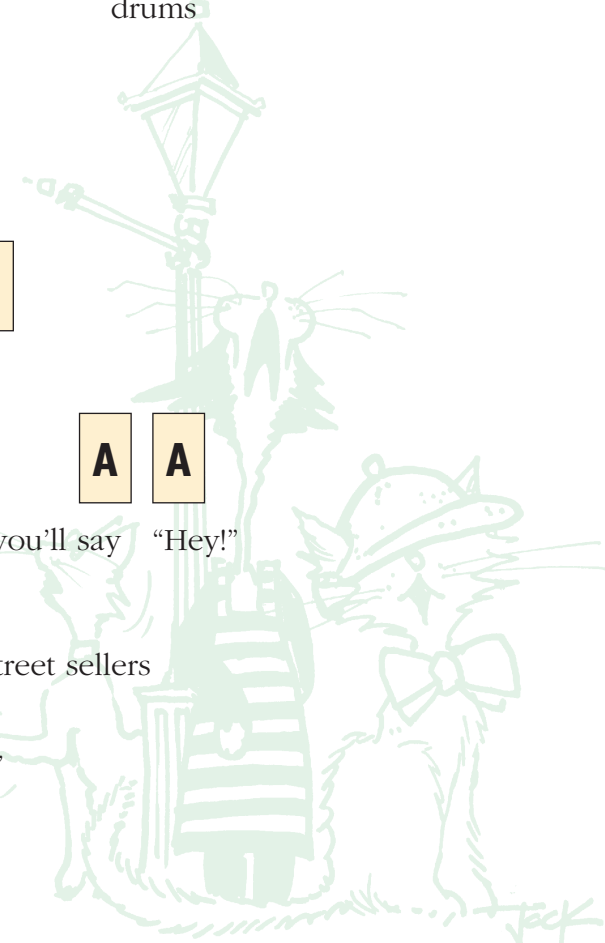

"Ripe strawberries, ripe"

"New oysters, new oysters, new whalefleet oysters"

"Chimneys to sweep, chimneys to sweep"

"Who will buy my roses?"

Make up your own street cries

dance

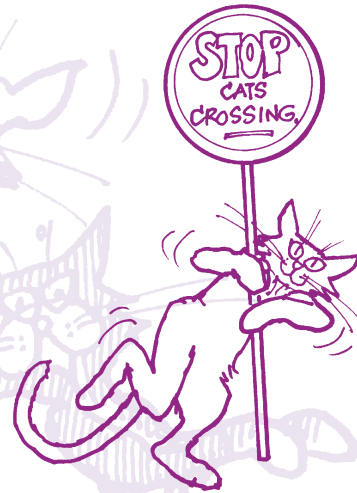

Statues

Show the Lollipop Lady

blowing a whistle holding a sign greeting a child
waving to a friend

Make your own Lollipop Lady statues

Walk for four beats and 'freeze' for four beats
Make a different statue each time

The Twist

Let's twist along with The Lollipop Lady

twist on the spot twist down and up twist from one foot to the other twist in a circle twist forward and back

Jack